

Investing for Success

Under this agreement for 2022
Birdsville State School will receive

$5,633*

This funding will be used to

- Support the delivery of individualised and personalised curriculum for learners to achieve to their full potential.
- Support staff capability with Literacy Continuum, Early Start, moderation and Sharratt's five questions.

Our initiatives include

- Engaging in moderation with Outback Advantage Alliance (OAA) schools.
- Planning to deliver individualised curriculum and responsive student support
- Building staff capability with using Sharratt's five questions (Clarity, 2018)

Our school will improve student outcomes by

Action	Total Cost
Delivering curriculum responsive to student learning goals <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Investing in Sharratt's Clarity book - Investing in staff capability through PD of Sharratt's Clarity. - Investing in staff capability through PLD course for literacy development 	$ 180 $ 2,623
Developing personalised learning plans <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Mathletics subscription - ClickView subscription 	$ 230 $ 1,100
Investing in staff capability development through collaborative planning opportunities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - TRS if/where available to have principal and teacher released at end of term to co-plan. 	$ 1,500
TOTAL	$ 5,633

Bridget Ryan
Principal
Birdsville State School

Michael De'Ath
Director-General
Department of Education

Queensland Government

*Funding amount estimated on 2021 data. Actual funding will be determined after 2022 enrolment data are finalised. Actual expenditure may vary due to changes in finalised 2022 enrolment data and student learning needs.